and Herte showed up well. Let us hope the boys will all keep this pace up. Tannshill outpitched Leach in every particular. He didn't give away any bases, and he permitted fewer hits off of him. Leach also made two wild stches, while Tanne made none.

Wells was quite painfully hust to be.

Wells was quite painfully burt in his follosion with Rollins, and is limping bad-y. Rollins showed a very mean dispo-ation in refusing to allow some one to un the bases for Jake after the accident

The Toronto (Canada) team has loaned Sanford, the clever out-fielder, who played with Petersburg year before last, to Richmond, and he will join Jake's boys in Portsmouth to-morrow. Sanford is a heavy hitter and a good fielder, and will be quite an acquisition to the Bluebird team.

ROANOKE AND PETERSBURG. The Mountaineers Get the Better of the Slugging Match.

ROANOKE, VA., May 9.—(Special.)— The Mountaineers had slightly the better of to-day's slugging match, and they put up a superior game in the field. While Willis was hit freely, he was more effective than his opponent at critical points. Groves, Williams, Wrigley, Cockman, and "Pop" Tate were all decidedly in the game, and did the star work for the locals. Shoita's poor work at second cost the visitors the game. Hoanoke went first to bat, and Cockman cracked out a triple second cast.

Roanoke went first to bat, and Cockman cracked out a triple, scoring as Whitehill reached first on Keefer's error, Grove got his base on balls, "Pop" Tate lined out a double, scoring Whitehill and Grove, and crossed the rubber on an error by Shoita and a hit by Wrigley, Williams was hit by a pitched ball, and Tate bunted a fly, which Breene could not reach, and was clearly safe at first, but Unpire Connor called it a muffed fly, and Tate was out. This is the only bad decision Connor has made here in six games.

Gochnaur got his base on balls, and here in six games.

Gochnaur got his base on balls, and Wrigley scored on Willis's fly to centre.
Cockman was up again, and made his second hit for the inning, but Kelley locals could not bunch their hits until

In the first the visitors scored twice, on a base on balls and three singles. In the third a triple and two singles gave them a lead of one, and in the seventh three singles and clean base-running increased this lead two more runs. Pratt, of the Washington and Lees, held the North Carolina suggers well in hand, although he had miserable support. The fielders could not hold a ball. They muffed and suffered good halls to pass through their handa as though they were pieces of hot dron. In the seventh and eighth innings Pratt was butted at will by the Tar-Heels.

The only redeeming feature for Washington and Lee was a triple play in the fifth inning. The fielding of the Tar-Heels was not as accurate as in their last game here. Stanley made two errors, and misplays were made by others of the team. Gregory played well—in fact, brilliantly—taking everything that came his way. Stephens carried off the honors for batting, scoring three doubles and a long his over right field came. Pears all brilliantly—taking everything that came his way. Stephens carried off the honors for batting, scoring three doubles and a long hit over right-field fence. Pearsail pitched a steady game for his team.
North Carolina had seventeen hits;
Washington and Lee four. Nothing greater than a double was batted. It was expected that Carolina would win, but none anticipated the walkover she had.

A Reply to the Charges Made by Senator Vest.

DETROIT, MICH., May 9 .- Don. M. Dickinson to-day gave out for publication a reply to the charges made in the United States Senate Thursday by Senator Vest in regard to the control of the Michigan State Democratic Convention by office-holders. Mr. Dickinson says that Senator Vest is in error in all of his state ments about the Michigan convention, as are the other southern senators who have been making threats of a senatorial investigation of the campaign culminating in the result of that convention.

He asserts that neither Chairman Stevenson nor anybody else issued any circular to office-holders in connection with that convention. Office-holders with that convention. He denies that delegations were filled by persons from outside the counties

"The talk of the use of money is pure and unadulterated slander and libel. It any money was used in this State in the campaign, it was used in behalf of a free-silver syndicate, organized and existing outside of this State, and furnishing money to carry on the campaign in this state."

In conclusion, Mr. Dickinson says that "it has been demonstrated that not more than 25 per cent of the Democratic voters of this State favor the free and unlimited

Mr. Dickinson declares that the C. Cag convention will not favor the policy of free coinage at the ratio of 16 to 1.

A number of gentlemen were present to witness the proceeding, and had a little later time been selected many others would have been on the grounds. The birds were enclosed in a large cane coop, and wete in fine condition. When the top of the coop was raised the pigeons arose together. They circulated around in the air for several minutes, and then took a straight shoot northward, and very soon had disappeared from view. The distance from Petersburg to Leesburg is about 146 miles, and it was expected that the birds would reach home early after noon. Mr. Pennell was notified by telegraph of the time of the flight of the pigeons.

BAPTIST WOMAN'S UNION.

Dr. Diaz-Miss Heck's Address.
CHATTANOGA, TENN., May 9.—
A delegation of seven Creek and Cherokee Indians from the Indian Territory divided popular interest with Dr. A. J. Diaz, late a Spanish prisoner in Morro Castle, Habana. The Woman's Missionary Union secured both attractions today. Mrs. Combes presented a request to the union for the admission of the Indian Territory, which now has native missionaries, and over 12,000 Baptist believers. The Chautauqua salute was missionaries, and over 12,000 Baptist be-lievers. The Chautauqua salute was given by the ladies in honor of their Indian sisters. Though unacquainted with the English language, Mrs. N. C. Combs addressed the meeting, her husband act-ling as Interpreter. On motion of Mrs. J. B. Gambrell, of Georgia, the Territory was admitted to representation in the union.

The secretaries of the two mission poards of the convention and of the Sunboards of the convention and of the Sun-day-School Board—to-wit.: Drs. J. Wil-lingham, J. T. Tichenor, and J. M. Frost, enjoy the distinction of being the only men admitted to the sessions of the Woman's Missionary Union. The annual address of the president, Miss Fannie Heck, of North Carolina, before this flourishing branch of the con-vention was one of the most eloquent and beautiful ever delivered before any assembly.

oldest military organization in Virginia, and one of the oldest, as well as most distinguished, in the United States. The handsomely uniformed infantrymen always show up well when our troops are on "dress parade," either at home, or when visiting other cities. and when Richmond is to be represented on any occasion where the finest troops in the country are brought together the Blues are always first thought of by our citizens as the proper company to send, and when they go they generally carry off the honors of the day. A COLLATION YESTERDAY.

The battalion yesterday participated in the Oakwood memorial exercises, and made a fine appearance in the parade. Upon their return to their armory at 7 o'clock long tables, laden with tempting viands that appealed to the appetites of the tired soldier have were required. viands that appealed to the appealed of the tired soldier boys, were awaiting them in the big hall. A few minutes later there was a man at every plate, but be-fore participating of the collation, Rev. Dr. Hartley Carmichael, the new chaplain, asked a blessing, after which the boys "fell to" with a will, and a relish that only a long, dusty march on a hot day can give.

COLONEL BIGGER'S HUMOR. COLONEL BIGGER'S HUMOR.

When their hunger had been appeased there were leud calls for Colonel John Bell Bigger, whose oratory is always in demand on such occasions, and who is always "good for the blues." The genial veteran member of the association arose, and made one of his characteristic impromptu speeches. He referred to the grand record of the Blues in glowing terms. When in connection with his speech he mentioned the name of Dr. Carmichael, there were rounds of applause speech he mentioned the name of the michael, there were rounds of appliance from those present. He and the new chaplain, the Golonel declared, were "two of a kind." When he heard that the reversed sentleman was a fisherman, he verend gentleman was a fisherman, he said his heart went out to him. He had a fellow-feeling for the man who knew the delights of landling a black bass or a

THE NEW CHAPLAIN TALKS. At the conclusion of Colonel Bigger's speech Dr. Carmichael was called for, and he made a few appropriate remarks. He said as their chaplain, he wanted to He said as their chapiain, he wanted to be considered one of the Blues. He wanted the Blues to look upon him in the light of a friend, and as "one of the boys." He was a Mason, and believed he was a prominent one, so far as degrees went, but when he became a member of that order he refused to be a chapiain, because he wanted to be on an equal foot because he wanted to be on an equal too-ing with the others, and have the same chances of going to the top. He was now one of the Blues, and would be glad to be with them on all public occasions. And, he declared, if it ever became necessary for them to "go to the front," although he had a wife and children, he would be ready to accompany the boys.

HE WILL VOTE NOW. Dr. Carmichael said that now he was a citizen of the United States, as he had gotten out his naturalization papers Fri-He said he should have voted two

The Lease Is Signed.

The Executive Committee of the Vir-ginia Agricultural and Mechanical So-ciety held a meeting yesterday in the office of Secretary Owens, when the contract between the society and Mr. Lee Lorraine, the lessee of the Exposition-Grounds, were signed.

request of Mr. Lorraine, of a clause in the contract providing that he should be reimbursed in case of foreclosure. This was at once agreed to by the committee yesterday. Some slight concessions from Mr. Lorraine were asked at the meeting. He reiterated his determination to stick by his original contract, and, without further delay, the contract was signed by President Watkins.
